WINE MERCHANTS

Bosquet des Papes
High Scoring
Châteauneuf-du-Pape
Drinking Perfectly Now

Good Afternoon Everyone,

We hope you are all well and safe and have been able to stock up on nice food and wine for the weeks ahead.

Please see below for our Bosquet des Papes offer. These wines are ideal for the cooler nights that are on their way and for Christmas drinking even if we don't exactly know what Christmas will look like this year. They are all at a good stage in their drinking windows to be enjoyed now. All of these wines have received very high scores from Robert Parker which you can see in the table at the bottom of this offer.

They will all continue to age well for quite some time if you do wish to lay them down. With regards to the different formats, the larger the bottle the greater the aging potential in general. However, we had a half bottle yesterday and it was also drinking wonderfully. Plenty of black fruits, violets, tar, coffee full bodied but with silky tannins.

We have once again included a 6 bottle mixed case for those of you who want to try a few different wines from their range.

We hope you enjoy this offer as much as we do. The Team at O.W.Loeb

A family estate, dating back to 1860, which has been run since 1995 by Nicolas Boiron and his wife Jeanne-Claire. It is made up of 30 hectares, dominated by old vine Grenache.

Nicolas Boiron makes an appealing Côtes du Rhône and a superb range of traditional Châteauneuf-du-Papes. He vinifies with aging in mind, believing the wines will express themselves best after 5-7 years and then continue to improve.

Vinification takes place in concrete and then élevage in demi-muids and large oak foudres. When we asked Nicolas whether he prefers to use whole bunches, he explained it is not automatic. Young vines, Cinsault, Mourvèdre and Syrah are habitually de-stemmed. But in the old vines he tends to use whole bunches as the stems lend great power and minerality.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Tradition

2014 - £295 per case of 12 including VAT (£209 in bond)

"The 2014 Châteauneuf du Pape Tradition is outstanding and readers looking for a great example of the vintage—and this estate—should buy this wine. Strawberries, framboise, ground herbs, pepper and hints of licorice all flow to a medium-bodied, elegant and impeccably balanced 2014 that has sweet tannin and loads of upfront charm and elegance. Made from 77% Grenache, 10% Syrah, 10% Mourvèdre and the rest Cinsault, Vaccarèse and Counoise, it has 7-8 years of prime drinking ahead of it." Jeb Dunnuck for Robert Parker - Issue Date - 28th Oct 2016

"Another in a long line of textbook wines from this estate, the 2015 Châteauneuf du Pape Cuvée Tradition displays subtle peppery, cinnamon and cherry notes on the nose. It's velvety in texture, turning to silk on the long, spicy finish. This full-bodied wine is 75% Grenache from ten different lieux-dits, primarily on galets roulé" Joe Czerwinski for Robert Parker - Issue Date - 31st Oct 2017

"Bottling March 2017. 75% Grenache, 12% Syrah 10% Mourvèdre (the rest is Cinsault, Counoise, Vaccarèse) Made with 40% whole bunches. Very concentrated but not over extracted. Deep dark fruits, earthy hedgerow and forest floor, powder fine tannins, redcurrant freshness comes through on the palate with a touch of spice. Very good balance. A well-crafted Châteauneuf du Pape". O.W.Loeb Team EP Tasting 2017 Tasting note by Nicola Franklin (O.W. Loeb).

Bosquet des Papes Châteauneuf-du-Pape Chante le Merle VV

2014 - £446 per case of 12 including VAT (£330 in bond)

"The only 2014 Châteauneuf du Pape presented - but certainly one of the stars of the vintage - the 2014 Châteauneuf du Pape Chante le Merle Vieilles Vignes is made from 85% Grenache, 10% Syrah and 5% Mourvèdre, and is raised mostly in foudre but with 30% of the blend in demi-muids. The élevage spans 12-18 months. This beauty offers tons of roasted herbs, licorice, leather and Provençal dark fruits to go with medium to full-bodied richness, fine tannin and solid length. It should easily be an outstanding wine and be one of the longer-lived in 2014". Jeb Dunnuck for Robert Parker - Issue Date - 30th Oct 2015

2015 Magnums - £495 per case of 6 including VAT (£369 in bond)

"The final blend of the captivating 2015 Chateaufeuf du Pape Chante le Merle Vieilles Vignes is 86% Grenache, with the balance equally split between Syrah and Mourvèdre. Delicate cherry and sandalwood perfumes rise from the glass, while the mid-palate delivers a full-bodied experience that seems almost weightless. The finish is long and silky, featuring a reprise of cherries and spice. It's just a lovely, elegant wine." Joe Czerwinski for Robert Parker - Issue Date - 31st Oct 2017

"85% Grenache 7% Syrah 7% Mourvèdre 80 to 90 year old vines, 100% whole bunches. A 6 week maceration, a longer natural process. A year in wood - 70% in foudre, 30% in demi-muid. This has so much more concentration and power and at the moment the tannins really grip. The notes are of pepper, cinnamon bark, cassia bark, ripe fruits. Great concentration. A beautifully structured wine." O.W.Loeb Team EP Tasting 2017. Tasting note by Nicola Franklin (O.W. Loeb).

Bosquet des Papes Châteaufeuf-du-Pape La Folie

2015 - £340 per case of 6 including VAT (£245 in bond)

"A blend of 80% Grenache and 20% Mourvèdre that's raised in a combination of demi-muids and barriques, the 2015 Chateaufeuf du Pape la Folie boasts sumptuous aromas of vanilla and toasted almond, then adds in just enough cherry fruit to keep things lively. This full-bodied wine is rich and velvety in texture, undeniably woody, but it looks so, so promising." Joe Czerwinski for Robert Parker - Issue Date - 31st Oct 2017
