Domaine Talmard Macôn-
Uchizy - Our Best Value
White Burgundy

Good Afternoon Everyone,

Please find details of our Domaine Talmard Mâcon-Uchizy offer below.

You can find our full list as well as a list of Bin End wines with new additions from Chablis and Germany below the offer.

The Talmard family have been involved in wine making since the 17th century at their estate based in Uchizy.

Today, Mallory and Benjamin Talmard operate the family business on 30 hectares, planted uniquely with Chardonnay, some of which was planted by their grandfather Joseph Talmard.

Joseph's son Paul led the following generation and used to sell grapes to the local co-operative but in 1971 he decided to produce wine under his own domaine name. In 1997 Mallory and Benjamin took over the estate, following in the footsteps of the previous generation in creating wines which became a benchmark for the area.

Their main production is their Mâcon Uchizy which comes from limestone rich soils with well-exposed slopes.

They use machines to harvest, and it is mostly done at night, especially in hot vintages, to conserve the quality and ensure the freshness of the grapes.

The grapes are gently pressed, fermented in cool temperature controlled tanks, and kept on fine lees for up to 4 months so the wine offers a generous texture.

The wine is bottled after chilling and filtration as quickly as possible so it can develop further in the bottle.

This unoaked, white Burgundy has aromas of melon, ripe pear, lemon oil and almonds. The palate has a lovely green apple freshness, hints of tropical fruits, light minerality, beautiful flavours from the extended ageing on lees and a long, smooth honey finish. Perfect as an aperitif and also pairs well with seafood and goat's cheese. Terrific value for this quality of winemaking!

We can offer the wine in three different formats; standard bottles, half bottles and magnums.

12 Bottle Case for £144 including VAT and Delivery

24 Bottle Case of Half Bottles for £165 including VAT and Delivery

6 Bottle Case of Magnums for £152 including VAT and Delivery
